Warhop was not altogether to blame that Montreal snatched the lead from him. Of course Hall's run home accounted for all three runs in the fourth, but both Cree and Warhop underestimated Hall. Birdle played close in and the visitor hit far over the fielder's head. Knight's nuif. Foster's throw and Cockill and Wolter's failure to tightly clutch Kriehel's single put this pair of visitors on third and second respectively with none out. Warhop had to attend to business in this sort of a pinch. At that he got off lucky, for after the home run a couple of scratch hits and Foster's cert of the bases, with but one out. The game would proviably have been lost to New York right there if Joyce had not failed in an attempt to "squeeze" Colvin. Joyce struck out and Colvin was caught by yards.

BIG CHIEF, TOM WILLIAMS'S $12,000 HORSE, BREAKS DOWN.

Thomas H. Williams, the millionaire California terf magnate, will have to declare his famous horse Big Chief from the Brook-iyn and Suburban bandicaps, according to a letter received from the coast vester

Several months ago the Oakland track magnate in a letter to a friend in this city made the prediction that if Big Chief conof the pair seemed to improve both outer and inner defences. Hemphili was robbed of a home run by a phenomenal circus catch on the part of Nattress. Johnson had a hit and two stolen bases: he also had an error, but because he took a designation of the countries of the continuous observation in the system of training when he assigned eighteen men to seats at a training table in the university commons. This is the first time in six years that a Columbia baseball squad has gone into series training, as the men

Each side drew a run in the first inning. These were home runs by Joyce and Cree.

Sohnson singled and stole in the second, to score on Mitchell's hit. For four innings thereoff New ords and the least from Hobby Keefe, who assigned the pitching burden in the second to sore white took the least from Hobby Keefe, who assigned the pitching burden in the second to the hords.

Montreal again came to even terms in the minth. Bailey got to second on Johnson's error, rook third on an out and tailed on Colvin's hit. Carroll, Cree and Wolter walledged and Birdle surticed. Wolter

Keep steadily on the job.

One of Starter Cassidy's assistants has ringsed a barrier at Belmont Park for the schooling of two-year-olds and the young horses were busy learning their paces yesterday. The same methods will be employed at all of the other Long Island tracks, so that there will be very little confusion to take at Aque incl. In Kentucky there is agitation in favor of the 'walk up aystem' of starting horses. But the flat footed break as employed on the New York circuit tensely satisfactory to turfmen and racegors in general. James Milton, by the way, will do the starting at Leaington and Lonisville Instead of A. B.
